Obituary - Hickey --Of Typho-malarial fever, on the 15th of January 1881, Zurie, aged 11, daughter of Patrick and Angeline Hickey, who reside three miles west of Tipton.
Zurie was a bright, intelligent and sweet dispositioned girl, beloved by every one who knew her. DEATH OF SALLIE HICKIE
Sallie Hickie was born September 4th 1876 and died of measles at her home in Deepwater, May 4, 1894. Though destined of many hard ships and deprived of all opportunities for culture, she was a remarkable girl, nature made her beautiful and kind hearted, gave her a rich voice and a sweet disposition. She was modest and reserved in her conduct, patient in trials and skillful in her services. She had a strong affection for her folks especially for her mother.
She was not a member of any church, but had great respect for religion. In her last sickness she sent for the writer apparently to assure him that she had accepted the advice given her during the special services at the Presbyterian Church. When he came, she looked up and smiled as much as to say All is Well. To his inquiries she answered that she was not afraid to die but was ready. She refused to take her medicine entreating her friends to let her go home. Before she left she called the family about her bed and bade them good bye, then her spirit took its flight to the bosom of God.
Her body was laid tenderly away in the Dunning Cemetery to await the resurrection morn. In her death, the family have lost an obedient daughter and loving sister, her friends one worthy of their love and earth a rose blossom, but heaven has gained an immortal soul.
The writer wishes to express his sympathy for all bereaved relatives and friends, and commend them to God who alone can comfort and sustain in them the hour of grief. Signed George J. Hunt

Notes

Tom was listed on his death certificate as a widower, living at 217 Pennsylvania Street, Vallejo, California. He had lived there 16 years and was listed as retired. He must have died alone because the death certificate states that there was an investigation into his death by the Vallejo County Coroner.

Have a copy of his original application for Social Security. He was working for the Idaho Power Company of Boise, Idaho in May 4 1937 when he made application. Gave his mother as Mary Mullis and father as Pat Hickey. Tom was 47 years of age on the application and he lived at 344 Harrison, Twin Falls, Idaho.
His birthdate is listed as 28 May 1889, born in Indianapolis, Indiana, which does NOT correspond with our information. He has signed his name as Thomas J. Hickey, not Thomas I. as we were given.

On the Social Security Original Application, Thomas name is listed as Thomas Ivan Hickey. It was filed in Twin Falls, Idaho in 4 May 1937. He was working for the Idaho Power Company. Was 47 his last birthday, states born 28 May 1889, which is a CONFLICT with the Hickey information.

Gives his mother as Mary Matilda and father as Pat Hickey. Tom was 47 years old at the application and he lived at 344 Harrison, Twin Falls, Idaho. His birthdate is listed as 29 May 1869. Born in Indianapolis, Indiana, which does NOT correspond with our information. He has signed his name as Thomas J. Hickey, not Thomas I. as we were given.

On the Social Security application Thomas moves to Sacramento, California from Idaho. It was filed in Twin Falls, Idaho in 4 May 1937. He was working for the Idaho Power Company. Was 67 his last birthday, since born 29 May 1869, which is a CONTRACT with the Hickey information.

1895 Special City Census of Clinton Missouri

This unusual census was ordered by the Clinton City Council and taken by C. W. Mercer and Theodore Thompson, who completed it on November 5th 1895. They found the number of city residents to be 6045. It is a very simple census, listing only the name, sex and age of each person. Family members generally appear one after the other, but there were no breaks in the writing between households. The listing is in the same order as it was written in the original ledger. The handwriting was very poor and the spelling was even worse. Be sure to check every surname variation you can think of when searching for your ancestors.

Franklin Life Insurance Company of Indianapolis, dropped in on us Friday. He has just recently paid the widow of the late Wm. B. Gentry, of Arcadia, $5,000, in full of a policy on the life of Mr. Gentry. Mr. Gentry insured in 1877, and had only paid four premiums, in all less than $500. Mr. Walker reports life insurance "booming."

—S. H. Clevenger, has removed into the building known as the the Hancock c[illegible] Sam keeps a first class restaurant [illegible]ere warm meals will be served up short notice and boarding either by the day or week may be obtained at reduced rates. We are sorry Sam's health is so precarious but hope when spring comes he may entirely recover.

—Tipton county has another newspaper, the "Monthly Circular to Parents," which is published in the interest of education at Tetersburg by Jasper Goodykoontz, who is sole P., editor, publisher, compositor, foreman, pressman, roller boy, "devil," press, office and type. In fact he is somewhat like the darkey barber in the concert after the circus; "he is razor, strap, lather, shop, looking glass and de whole d—d business.

—Steve Lowley received from the generous hand of Colonel Forrer a huge pipe of very unique design. It is about six inches in length and has a stem about 2 feet long. The pipe and stem is all one piece, the stem being simply a twig growing from the pipe which was the main body of the shrub. Colonel captured it from some Indians whom he saw at Niagara on his wedding tour.

"—S. G. Young, and R. M. Roberson have purchased the shop and stock of furniture formerly owned by W. B. Young & Co. Seneca is a "goodfeller," very well known and a good salesman. Mr. Robinson, ex-sheriff, is a cabinet maker by trade and full of business. They will stock up in all the new goods in their line and drive their business. We believe [illegible]ill succeed and we earnestly hope [illegible]ople will extend to them to liberal patronage.

—On the first day of the New Year a protracted meeting was commenced at the Macedonia Baptist church two and one-half miles north east of Tipton and continued two weeks resulting in twelve additions to the church, seven of whom were baptised last Sabbath. The ministers laboring in this meeting were Revs. M. T. Carver and J. K. P. Carson.

—On Friday Jan. 14 a large number of frind and relatives gathered at the residence of Mr. James Nelson's and wife of Madison township and made them the subjects of an enjoyable surprise by making them the happy recipients of a bountiful feast of the choicest eatables of the land. Mr. James Nelson being 67 years old and Mrs. Nelson age being in close conjunction, the dinner was also made in honor of that event in her life. Both having passed the sunny side of life, we feel impressed with a desire to express our best wishes in the future, a happy old age and many long and pleasant days for them. May the bright halo of sunshine and happiness be with them is the wish of your reporter. OBSERVER.

—On last Saturday evening at the depot John [Brigham] Young assaulted and battered Caleb Smith with a club, in return for which Caleb drew his pop and failing to take that accurate aim which in such cases ought always to be taken, he fired and struck Michael Stokes, a [illegible]eman. Brigham was arrested, fined [illegible] costed but we believe Caleb's case [illegible] hangs fire. Brigham claims that too great an intimacy was noticed between Smith and his [Brigham's] wife, the partner of his bosom, the sharer alike of his joys and his sorrows, the comforter of his—but really we can continue this interesting subject no further, we chop off right here.

in the morning he had no thoughts of the grand surprise that was in store for him. Birthday dinners, however having become somewhat frequent he had a notion to hire a lot of fellows to come in "with well filled baskets, take possession of his house and take him completely by surprise," a'la mode. However he thought better of it, but concluded that he would not be very hard to get away from the house should they want to arrange for it. So after drinking a cup of coffee he enticed himself down to the office and waited till noon. Having shaved, brushed and arranged his neck tie, he wended his way homeward amusing himself the while, by visions of baskets full of good eating. Arriving at home a most wonderful surprise awaited him; the dining-room was filled to its greatest capacity with chairs and boxes from the wood house while the tables were groaning under the weight of stoves legs, stovepipes etc. His wife had concluded to change the location of two stoves and was waiting for him to put up the pipes. Surprised? Well you'd better guess he was. He said he'got so all fired mad he went to restaurant and bought a sandwitch and raised cain generally all evening.

—There is in Tipton (to our shame be it said) a class of persons, all of whom have attained the age and stature of men, who have good educations, who are fitted to engage in business but who are entirely led astray be the false idea that they are exceedingly smart. Nothing pleases them so well as the commission of some little misdemeanor, quite too small to be noticed by a conservator of the peace and yet great enought to make themselves an abominable nusiance in the sight of all good people. Sarcasm seems to be their great forte and they always have a lot of pimps about them to whom they "set up the drinks" for laughing at their flat witticisms. Having grown bolder by practice, they defy all rules of propriety by boisterous talking and yelling at a late hour of the night and have even gone so far as to discharge their revolvers within the corporative limits at twelve or one o'clock at night just to afford an an opportunity of relieving themselves of an extremely ponderous load of cute sayings reflecting discredit on the management of the town. We shall be pleased to don our best Sunday attire and attend about four funerals one of these days if some fellow would gather these devils to their fathers with a club.

Kendall's Spavin Cure!

Acme Michigan, December 28th 1879

Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—I seat you one dollar for your "Kendall's Spavin Cure last summer which cured a bone spav in with half a bottle. The best liniment I ever used. Yours Respectfully, Homer Haxie.

From Rev. P. N. Granger,

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans Dis't.

St. Albans, Vt., Jan 20th 1880.

Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with "Kendall's Spavin Cure," has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully Yours,

P. N. Granger.

STATEMENT MADE UNDER OTH

To whom it may Concern.—In the year 1875 I treated with Kendall's Spavin Cure, a bone Spavin of several months growth, nearly half as large as a hens egg and completely stopped the lameness and removed the enlargement. I have worked the horse ever since very hard, and he has never been lame, nor could I ever see any difference in the size of the hock joints since I treated him with Kendal's Spavin cure. R. A. Gaines.

Enosburg Falls Vt., Feb. 25th, 1879.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 25th day of Feb. A. D. 1879.

John G. Jenne, Justice of Peace.

Kendall's Spavin Cure!

ON HUMAN FLESH it Has been ascertained by repeated trials to be the very best liniment ever used for any deep seated pain of long standing or of short duration. Also for Corns, Bunions, Frost-Bites or any bruise, cut or lameness. Some are afraid to use it on human flesh simply because it is a horse medicine, but you should remember that what is good for Beast is good for man and we know from experience that "Kendall's Spavin Cure" can be used on a child one year old with perfect safty Its effects are wonderful on human flesh and it does not blister or make a sore. Try it and be convinced.

What is Good for Beast is Good for Man.

Read Of its effects On Human Flesh.

Bakersfield, Vt., Dec. 23., 1879.

B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—I wish to add my testimony in favor of your invaluable liniment, "Kendall's Spavin Cure," In the spring of 1872 I slipped on the ice and sprained my right knee joint, I was very lame and at times suffered the most excrucianing pain. I wore a bandage on it for over a year, and tried most everything in my reach, but could find nothing that would give permanent relief. When I over worked it would pain me very much. In April, 1878 I began to think I should be a cripple for life; but having some of Kendall's Spavin Cure" thought I would try it. I used one third of a bottle, and experienced relief at once. The pain left me and has not troubled me since. I feel very grateful to you and would recommend "Kendall's Spavin Cure" to all who suffer with sprains or rheumatism.

Your Truly, Mrs. J. Beutell.

Send address for Illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unequalled success to our knowledge, for beast well as man.

Mr. Gentry insured in 1877, and had only paid four premiums, in all less than $500. Mr. Walker reports life insurance "booming."

—Tipton county has another newspaper, the "Monthly Circular to Parents," which is published in the interest of education at Tetersburg by Jasper Goodykoontz, who is sole P., editor, publisher, compositor, foreman, pressman, roller boy, "devil," press, office and type. In fact he is somewhat like the darkey barber in the concert after the circus; "he is razor, strap, lather, shop, looking glass and de whole d—d business.

—Steve Lowley received from the generous hand of Colonel Forrer a huge pipe of very unique design. It is about six inches in length and has a stem about 2 feet long. The pipe and stem is all one piece, the stem being simply a twig growing from the pipe which was the main body of the shrub. Colonel captured it from some Indians whom he saw at Niagara on his wedding tour.

—S. G. Young, and R. M. Roberson have purchased the shop and stock of furniture formerly owned by W. B. Young & Co. Seneca is a "goodfeller," very well known and a good salesman. We believe they will succeed and we earnestly hope people will extend to them to liberal patronage.

—On the first day of the New Year a protracted meeting was commenced at the Macedonia Baptist church two and one-half miles north east of Tipton and continued two weeks resulting in twelve additions to the church, seven of whom were baptised last Sabbath. The ministers laboring in this meeting were Revs. M. T. Carver and J. K. P. Carson.

—On Friday Jan. 14 a large number of frind and relatives gathered at the residence of Mr. James Nelson's and wife of Madison township and made them the subjects of an enjoyable surprise by making them the happy recipients of a bountiful feast of the choicest catables of the land. Mr. James Nelson being 67 years old and Mrs. Nelson age being in close conjunction, the dinner was also made in honor of that event in her life. Both having passed the sunny side of life, we feel impressed with a desire to express our best wishes in the future, a happy old age and many long and pleasant days for them. May the bright halo of sunshine and happiness be with them is the wish of your reporter. OBSERVER.

—On last Saturday evening at the depot John [Brigham] Young assaulted and battered Caleb Smith with a club, in return for which Caleb drew his pop and failing to take that accurate aim which in such cases ought always to be taken, he fired and struck Michael Stokes, a boatman. Brigham was arrested, fined and costed but we believe Caleb's case still hangs fire. Brigham claims that too great an intimacy was noticed between Smith and his [Brigham's] wife, the partner of his bosom, the sharer alike of his joys and his sorrows, the comforter of his—but really we can continue this interesting subject no further, we chop it off right here.

in the morning, in that no forgotten grand surprise that was in store for him. Birthday dinners, however having become somewhat frequent he had a notion to hire a lot of fellows to come in "with well filled baskets, take possession of his house and take him completely by surprise," a'la mode. However he thought better of it, but concluded that he would not be very hard to get away from the house should they want to arrange for it. So after drinking a cup of coffee he enticed himself down to the office and waited till noon. Having shaved, brushed and arranged his neck tie, he wended his way homeward amusing himself the while, by visions of baskets full of good eating. Arriving at home a most wonderful surprise awaited him; the dining-room was filled to its greatest capacity with chairs and boxes from the wood house while the tables were groaning under the weight of stoves legs, stovepipes etc. His wife had concluded to change the location of two stoves and was waiting for him to put up the pipes. Surprised? Well you'd better guess he was. He said he got so all fired mad he went to restaurant and bought a sandwitch and raised cain generally all evening.

—There is in Tipton (to our shame be it said) a class of persons, all of whom have attained the age and stature of men, who have good educations, who are fitted to engage in business but who are entirely led astray be the false idea that they are exceedingly smart. Nothing pleases them so well as the commission of some little misdemeanor, quite too small to be noticed by a conservator of the peace and yet great enought to make themselves an abominable nusiance in the sight of all good people. Sarcasm seems to be their great forte and they always have a lot of pimps about them to whom they "set up the drinks" for laughing at their flat witticisms. Having grown bolder by practice, they defy all rules of propriety by boisterous talking and yelling at a late hour of the night and have even gone so far as to discharge their revolvers within the corporative limits at twelve or one o'clock at night just to afford an an opportunity of relieving themselves of an extremely ponderous load of cute sayings reflecting discredit on the management of the town. We shall be pleased to don our best Sunday attire and attend about four funerals one of these days if some fellow would gather these devils to their fathers with a club.

Kendall's Spavin Cure!

Acme Michigan, December 28th 1879
Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—I seat you one dollar for your "Kendall's Spavin Cure last summer which cured a bone spav in with half a bottle. The best liniment I ever used. Yours, respectfully, Homer Hazie.

From Rev. P. N. Granger,
Presiding Elder of the St. Albans Dis't.

St. Albans, Vt., Jan 20th 1880.
Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with "Kendall's Spavin Cure," has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully Yours,
P. N. Granger.

STATEMENT MADE UNDER OTH

To whom it may Concern.—In the year 1875 I treated with Kendall's Spavin Cure, a bone Spavin of several months growth, nearly half as large as a hens egg and completely stopped the lameness and removed the enlargement. I have worked the horse ever since very hard, and he has never been lame, nor could I ever see any difference in the size of the hock joints since I treated him with Kendall's Spavin cure. R. A. Gaines.

Kendall's Spavin Cure!

ON HUMAN FLESH it Has been ascertained by repeated trials to be the very best liniment ever used for any deep seated pain of long standing or of short duration. Also for Corns, Bunions, Frost-Bites or any bruise, cut or lameness. Some are afraid to use it on human flesh simply because it is a horse medicine, but you should remember that what is good for Beast is good for man, and we know from experience that "Kendall's Spavin Cure" can be used on a child one year old with perfect safty. Its effects are wonderful on human flesh and it does not blister or make a sore. Try it and be convinced.

What is Good for Beast is Good for Man.

Read Of its effects On Human Flesh.

Bakersfield, Vt., Dec. 23., 1879.
B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—I wish to add my testimony in favor of your invaluable liniment, "Kendall's Spavin Cure," In the spring of 1872 I slipped on the ice and sprained my right knee joint, I was very lame and at times suffered the most excruciating pain. I wore a bandage on it for over a year, and tried most everything in my reach, but could find nothing that would give permanent relief. When I over worked it would pain me very much. In April, 1878 I began to think I should be a cripple for life; but having some of "Kendall's Spavin Cure" thought I would try it. I used one third of a bottle, and experienced relief at once. The pain left me and has not troubled me since. I feel very grateful to you and would recommend "Kendall's Spavin Cure" to all who suffer with sprains or rheumatism.
Your Truly, Mrs. J. Beutell.

Send address for Illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unequalled success to our knowledge, for beast well as man.

THE ADVOCATE.

M. W. Pershing & C. M. Puntenney, Editors. TIPTON, INDIANA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1881. VOL. III.--NO. 19.

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

Marry a Gentleman.

Marry a gentleman,
Girls, if you can,
Gentle and tender,
Though no less a man;
One who will treasure
His child or his wife,
Scorning to rob them
Of sweetness in life.

One who will never
The brute's part assume,
Filling his household
With sorrow and gloom.
If on love's altar
The flame you can fan,
Marry a gentleman,
Girls, if you can.

You will be happy,
And you will be glad,
Though he only
Be commonly clad;
Pleasure is fleeting,
And life but a span—
Marry a gentleman,
Girls, if you can.

She Knows It.

A woman always knows when she is pretty. Isn't it strange that she never knows when she is the other thing? We can all pit up with a good deal of simpering nonsense from a pretty girl, but a homely damsel must deport herself with straight-laced decorum or she makes herself ridiculous. Perhaps it is unfair, but the world will have it so, and it stands an inexorable law.

A Dime-Novel Petition for Divorce.

Ladies can wax wondrously grandiloquent when in the mind. A Kentuckian victim of man's inconstancy thus sets forth her plaint in a petition for divorce:

"Dark clouds of discord began to lower over the sky of wedded felicity, and the minacious lightning of disunion began to dart its lurid flames across gloomy clouds of atramental blackness, obscuring every star of hope and happiness, whose resplendent glory illuminated the dawn of the first few brief years of her wedded life, when she gave her hand and an undivided heart to the defendant, who, in the saltry month of July, 1879, after having been warmly and snugly wintered within the fond embraces of her loving arms, and closely nestled to a heart that beat alone for the defendant, showed his base, black ingratitude by abandoning her without cause whatever, except the insatiable thirst for novelty, which is the predominant character of defendant's nature."

A Boston Anti-Widow League.

The young ladies of Boston formed an Anti-Widow League, and the following is a copy of a petition sent to the Gov-be denominated sporadic, and widely different from pulmonary diseases by inheritance. Consumption is not only developed by tight lacing, but caused in many cases, where the original conformation of the individual was favorable for a comparative long life, is beyond question. Medications cannot stay the onward march of disorganization when ulcerations eat the tissues. Once destroyed, they can never be reproduced. Therefore, if prevention is better than cure, less expensive, and always more agreeable, why not profit by these suggestions? No compression of the base of the chests of men being induced by tight dressing, a chafing of the upper surface of the lung rarely occurs with them. Great men, giants in any department of busy life—those who make the world conscious of their influence—those who quicken thought, revolutionize public sentiment and leave the impression of their genius in the history of the age in which they flourish, were not the sons of gaunt mothers whose waists resemble the middle of an hour glass.

Women.

I have always remarked that women, in all countries, are civil and obliging, tender and humane; that they are ever inclined to be gay and cheerful, timorous and modest; and that they do not hesitate, like men, to perform a generous action. Not haughty, not arrogant, not supercilious, they are full of courtesy and fond of society; more liable, in general, to err than man, but, in general, also, more virtuous, and performing more good actions than he. To a woman, whether civilized or savage, I never addressed myself in the language of decency and friendship, without receiving a decent and friendly answer. With men it has often been otherwise. In wandering over the barren plains of inhospitable Denmark, through honest Sweden and frozen Lapland, rude and churlish Finland, unprincipled Russia, and the wide-spread regions of the wandering Tartar; if hungry, dry, cold, wet or sick, the women have ever been friendly to me, and uniformly so. And, to add to this virtue, so worthy the appellation of benevolence, their actions have been performed in so free and kind a manner that if I was dry, I drank the sweetest draught, and if hungry, I ate the coarsest morsel with a double relish. —Exchange.

Curious Blunders.

The numerous instances of mistaken identity on record are constantly receiving new additions. There is an amusing account of a French lady who was very jealous of her husband, and determined to watch his movements. On one occasion, when he told her he was going to Versailles, she followed him, keeping him in sight till she missed him in a passage leading to the railway station. Looking about her for a few minutes, she saw a man coming out of a glove-shop with a rather over-dressed lady. Making sure from the distance that this man was her husband, she came suddenly up and, without a word of warning, gave him three or four boxes on the ear. The instant the gentleman turned round she discovered her mistake, and, at the same time, caught sight of her husband, who had merely called at a tobacconist's, and was crossing the street. There was nothing for it but to faint in the arms of the gentleman whose ears she had boxed, while the other lady moved away to avoid a scene. The stranger, astonished to find an unknown lady in his arms, was further startled by a gentleman seizing him by the collar and demanding what he meant by embracing that lady.

"Why, she boxed my ears, and then fainted," exclaimed the aggrieved gentleman.

"She is my wife!" shouted the angry husband, "and would never have struck you without a cause."

And worse than angry words would probably have happened had not the cause of the whole misunderstanding recovered sufficiently to explain how it all happened.

An amusing blunder was once made by a dyer, who was given by a farmer four flannel shirts to be dyed a fast gray color, instead of which he dyed them red. On wearing the garments, the color came out of them so that, as the farmer expressed it, "he looked like a red Indian;" and, as it cost him several shillings in baths to turn himself into a white man again, he sued the dyer, and obtained damages.

An embarrassing incident once happened to an Englishman in Rome. Entering one of the churches in that city, as a service was going on, he sat quietly down, placing his hat on the ground beside him. Some little time passed, and, as there seemed no immediate prospect of the ceremony coming to an end, he reached for his hat, in order to leave, but was stopped by an unseen hand, which grasped him from behind. Thinking some custodian of the church wished

The Union Army—How It Was Composed.

Under the call of April 15, 1861, for 75,000 three-months' militia, the States furnished 91,816. Under the call of May 3, 1861—confirmed by the act approved Aug. 6, 1861—and under acts of July 22 and 25, 1861, for 500,000 three-years' men, 700,680 men were actually furnished, of whom, however, only 657,868 were three-years' men, while 15,007 men were furnished in May and June, 1862, by special authority, for three months. Under the call of July 2, 1862, for 300,000 men for three years, 421,465 were furnished. Under the call of Aug. 4, 1862, for 300,000 for nine months, only 87,588 were furnished. Under the President's proclamation of June 15, 1863, for militia of six months, 16,361 men were furnished. Under the call of Oct. 17, 1863—which embraces men raised by draft of 1863—and that of Feb. 1, 1864, for 500,000 men for three years, 317,092 men were furnished, while 52,288 paid commutation, making a total of 369,380. Under the call of March 14, 1864, for 200,000 men for three years, 259,515 men were furnished, and 32,678 paid commutation, making a total of 292,193. Between April 23 and July 18, 1864, 113,000 militia for 100 days were mustered into service. Under the call of July 18, 1864, for 500,000 men—reduced by excess of credits on previous calls—for one, two, three and four years, 223,044 men were furnished for one year, 8,340 for two years, 153,049 for three years, 730 for four years, and 1,298 paid commutation, making a total of 386,461. Under the call of Dec. 18, 1864, for 300,000 men for one, two, three and four years, 151,363 were furnished for one year, 5,110 for two years, 54,967 for three years, 312 for four years, and 460 paid commutation, making a total of 212,212.

In addition, 182,257 volunteers and militia were furnished from States not called upon for their quota, 166,848 of whom were for three years, and the balance for periods ranging from sixty days to one year.

The grand aggregate of the foregoing is as follows: Quotas from all the States and Territories, 2,763,670, on which 2,772,408 were furnished, 86,724 paid commutation, making a total of 2,859,132. This aggregate, reduced to a three years' standard, makes the total number of men 3,320,272. The figures are taken from the books of the Adjutant General's office, in Washington:

POPULAR SCIENCE.

It is proposed by Dr. Oppermann to construct roads in this way: First, a bed six to eight inches thick of coarse beton with hydraulic mortar, is laid down, and then on the top of this bed a thinner layer of smaller beton, cemented with a mixture of lime and one-half part of Portland cement or Bologne cement, and one-half part of slag.

Friction tapers are made in England from a mixture of one ounce saltpetre, one-half ounce powdered orris root, one-eighth ounce minium, and one ounce phosphorus; on the latter being dissolved one or two ounces of castor oil are added, the quantity varying according to the resultant tenacity or flexibility required.

The Consolidated railroad is building at its shops in New Haven, Ct., a new palace car, in which there is a device for keeping out the smoke, dust, and cinders that come in at an open window. It consists of an extra outer window, shaped somewhat like a curved bay window, in which the glass is only half the width of the window, and slides up and down. When pushed to the front side it presents a curved surface against which the cinders and smoke strike and are thrown outward, while air can enter from the open half.

The effects of professions and trades on mortality are great, the term of life varying from 65 years 11 months for clergymen to 40 years 10 months for lithographers and copper-engravers. In England, according to the census-office statistics, the duration of life has been found most defective among the steel-workers, polishers, and grinders; and next to these the life of the collier—that fearless delver in the bowels of the earth—is least secure, owing greatly, no doubt, to the occurrence of accidents in the mines.

In a memoir published at Christiana Herr Sophus Tromholt considers that it may be accepted as certain that the aurora borealis is a local phenomenon, circumscribed by very narrow limits, and occurring not far from the surface of the earth. The light, he finds from a careful comparison of a large number of observations, is generally white, though sometimes red or green; but further north than Bergen the aurora often presents spectral colors. He believes, also, that there is now evidence enough to accept the statement that auroral displays are sometimes attended with sound. Some late inventions ought to be able to set this last alleged fact beyond dispute.

Pins and Their Folk Lore.

Although most of us, in daily life, know the intrinsic value of a pin—which in a variety of ways is at all times in request, and often a more than welcome friend when an accident, it may be, of some kind, or faulty workmanship, has necessitated its assistance in temporarily mending our clothes—yet, nevertheless, few people would have imagined that, under certain conditions, it is regarded as ominous as salt-spilling, the breaking of a looking-glass, or the howling of a dog, not to mention that host of common superstitions which are current among us. Thus, for example, in some localities it is said that on seeing a pin one should always pick it up for the sake of good luck, as, by omitting to do so, misfortune will assuredly soon overtake those who are heedless of this admonition. The following rhyme, embodying this fanciful notion, is still in use:

See a pin and pick it up,
All the day you'll have good luck;
See a pin and let it lie,
All the day you'll have to cry.

Among the magical properties of pins we may mention their supposed efficacy in the cure of certain diseases. Thus, in Leicestershire, in the case of warts, the patient is taken to an ash tree, where a pin is first stuck into the bark, and withdrawn; a wart is transfixed with it till he feels pain, and then the pin is again pushed into the tree. Every wart thus treated is said to die away gradually, until it entirely disappears. A few years ago we are told that some trees might be seen thickly studded over with pins, each the index of a cured wart. In connection with this superstition there is a well-known couplet:

Ashen tree, ashen tree,
Pray buy these warts of me.

In place of a pin, a nail driven into an oak is reported to cure toothache. A Gloucestershire remedy consists in rubbing the warts with a snail, after it has been pierced with a pin as many times as there are warts. As the snail by degrees withers away, so it is believed that the wart impregnated with its matter will do the same. It has been pointed out that most of the charms of this kind are of the nature of a sacrifice, the warts being transferred to a substitute.

One of the most popular species of enchantment to which pins have been applied is their supposed influence in counteracting the ill effects of witchcraft. An interesting case of this kind occurred within the last few years in Sussex. A lady observed upon a cottage hearth a quart bottle filled with pins, and on inquiring why they were put there, was requested not to touch the bottle, as it

Mr. Bauer forwarded your e-mail request to me so I may try to find the information that you are seeking about T.P. & Angeline Hickey.

The Tipton Advocate (newspaper)

Zuie's obituary. No burial information.
Cause of death: typho-malarial fever.
Her parents reside three miles west of Tipton.

The listed information is all that I found on the names you provided.
Indiana does not have county birth or death records until after 1882.
Tipton County does not have land records before the early 1900s.
I have not ever found Court or Tax Record indexes for Tipton County.

Have you tried to research ship records for his name on a manifest?
If he was 24 when he married Angeline, he was born about 1839/1840.

If you need any further assistance, please contact me and I will try to help.
Good luck in your research.

Judy

Subject: Tipton County Lookup

Are there any records showing who lived in the Tipton County between 1880 and 1895?

I know my Grandparents, Thomas Patrick (T.P.) and Angelina Mullis Hickey were living in Tipton County, Cicero Township in 1880 with 7 of their children:, Richard M., James W., Zuri/Missouri, Mary Ann, Edward, Sarah, and Charles. T.P. was a farmer.

Sometime between 1880 and 1895 they moved to Missouri where Angelina's sister was living.
We do not know what happened to Thomas Patrick (T.P.) whether died or left the family.

I am looking for any information about T.P., death, land record, tax record, court record, anything.
We are not only wanting to know about him but also his parents names.
Family history states he immigrated to US from Ireland at age 21.
He married Angelina at age 24. Their last child was born in 1887.

Will be happy to reimburse for time and copies.

Friday, Jan.21,1881-Page 3
Sale's obituary. No burial information.
Cause of death: typho-malarial fever.
Not private residence three miles west of Tipton.

The listed information is all that I found on the names you provided. Indiana does not have county birth or death records until after 1882. Tipton County does not have land records before the early 1800s. I have not ever found Court or Tax Record indexes for Tipton County.

Have you tried to research ship records for his name on a manifest? If he was 24 when he married Angelina, he was born about 1836/1840.

If you need any further assistance, please contact me and I will try to help. Good luck in your research.

Judy

Subject: Tipton County Lookup

Are there any records showing who lived in the Tipton County between 1880 and 1892?

I know my Grandparents, Thomas Patrick (T.P.) and Angelina Mullis Sickey were living in Tipton County, Cicero Township in 1880 with 7 of their children; Richard M., James W.,
Sari/Missouri, Mary Ann, Edward, Sarah, and Charles. T.P. was a farmer.

Sometime between 1880 and 1885 they moved to Missouri where Angelina's sister was living.
We do not know what happened to Thomas Patrick (T.P.) whether died or left the family.

I am looking for any information about T.P., death, land record, tax record, court record, anything.
We are not only wanting to know about him but also his parents names.
Family history states he immigrated to US from Ireland at age 21.
He married Angelina at age 24. Their last child was born in 1881.

Will be happy to reimburse for time and copies.

Most sincerely,
Barbara Kalcher Fulton

to die but was ready. She refused to take her medicine entreating her friends to let her go home. Before she left she called the family about her bed and bade them good bye then her spirit took its flight to the bosom of God. Her body was laid tenderly away in the Dunning Cemetery to await the resurection morn. In her death, the family have lost an obedient daughter and loving sister her friends one worthy of their love and earth a rose blossom but heaven has gained an immortal soul. Your Thomas Hickey

Thanks for the correction and I did change it to Margaret Hennessey but it still does not make sense to the record I found. I may also have the wrong Thomas???? I do think I have the correct Charles W. Hickey for the reasons below: I was working on Ella May Estell who married Charles W. Hickey. He was her second husband -she was first married to a Harrelson. Charles and Ella May are buried in Blackwell. They have a double tombstone. The family information on Charles' Find-A-Grave memorial gives his mother as Angeline Mullis Hickey and father as Thomas P. Hickey. That is the information that I had put on my family tree. Today I changed the mother to Margaret but I can't find a link to Charles W. to Margaret. THe above information that Angeline moved to Henry Co., Missouri also makes sense for the connection, because lots of Estells (Estills) lived in Henry Co., Missouri. You also state that Angeline is buried in Blackwell OK (the same as Charles W. and Ella May). I always want my info to be correct but I wanted you to know where I had got the information. Also, I want to ask if, by chance, you or someone in your family would have known the Cline family in Blackwell, Oklahoma. My husband's adoptive parents were Forest F. and Geneva Cline. Forest F's father was Grover C. Cline. My husband, Forest Lynn Cline was born in 1944 and was adopted as an infant in Kay County, Oklahoma. We have tried to find a way to find his birth parents - we know he was born a MORGAN - but Oklahoma records are closed. He had done the DNA and found 2nd cousins but no one closer. And, also the Cline family came from Henry Co., Missouri to Kay County, Oklahoma. Grover Cleveland Cline and wife, Arizona Estell Cline are buried at the Blackwell Cemetery. Thank you. Floydene

I am the great grandson of Thomas Patrick Hickey and Angeline Mullis and wondering how you are related to this family? I have been researching Thomas Patrick for many years and do not know what happened to T.P. after living in Indiana and finding Angeline in Henry co MO in 1893 when her father died. You list Thomas Patrick born in Ireland 15 Oct 1840 and dying 25 Mar 1900 in Bradford Illinois. Do you have an obituary for him? Who gave you his birth and death information? I will be happy to exchange information with you and look forward to hearing from you.
Sincerely, Jack and Barbara Fulton, Bartlesville, OK

Who Said It?

Men are sometimes remembered almost as much for the things they said as for the things they did during their lifetimes. From the series following each quotation below, pick the name of its author:

1. "All that I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." (Washington, Napoleon, Lincoln, Edison).

2. "Memory is the receptacle and chest of all knowledge." (Plato, Schopenhauer, Voltaire, Cicero).

3. "Every noble work is at first impossible." (Carlyle, Addison, Milton; Zola).

4. "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child." (Wordsworth, Shakespeare, Longfellow, Keats).

5. "Where law ends, tyranny begins." (Thomas Pitt, Patrick Burke,

"satisfactorily accomplished through state control, either individually or by means of state compacts."

Phillips immediately asked permission to study the report.

"If it doesn't include mismanagement by the government of oil production in the Osage nation of Oklahoma," he said, "I want to be able to answer it in public."

Brown cited Illinois, one of the original signatories to the compact. He said the state had dropped out of it and had not yet enacted conservation legislation. He said such legislation in other states was inadequate or ineffectually administered.

W. D. Scallon presided during the entertainment. An old fashioned square dance was presented by fifth and sixth grade students, and beginners and advance tap dance classes each gave a number.

Fifty-six students of the fifth and sixth grades took part in a series of physical education demonstrations, directed by Fenton McAllister and Lucile Shaver.

Devotions were conducted by Rev. Paul M. Shurtleff, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

In the room count, Miss Eva Williams was first; Miss Evelyn Mae Roberts, second, and Miss Ethel Moyer's room was third. Refreshments were served.

Dear Denver:

Thank You for talking to me Saturday. I really appreciate the information you gave me. I will write a note to Margaret Pacheco in Littleton today also.

My husband Jack Kenney Fulton is the son of Lyle & Ruby Turner Fulton of Blackwell, Oklahoma (Ruby died April 1961). Lyle still lives in Blackwell and has remarried. Jack's Grandmother was Mary Ann Hickey Turner, who was a sister of your Stepfather, Charles Hickey.

We are searching for the daughter of Edward Hickey, Charles and Mary Ann's brother. The daughter's first name is Ruth, she married a Baptist minister and perhaps was the person who had Uncle Ed's body transferred from California where he died to Goliad, Taxas. (The Funeral Home in Goliad has lost the records of the transfer.) We are tryingto find out what his daughter's married name is and where she lives if still living. Do you remember the name of her Mother? That would be Uncle Ed's wife?

Dorothy Cook in Blackwell gave me your name and said you might be able to help us that is why I called.

Uncle Ed's son by his first marriage came to Blackwell by plane from Oregon, stayed in a Motel, ran an advertisment in the newspaper to have anyone related to the Hickey family to call him. He is especially wanting a picture of his father Ed.

If you find you can add any inforation to the sheets I have enclosed, Dates, places, etc. Please do so and return to me.

I have enclosed a set for you to keep if you wish - as I do know Charles was your Stepfather. You are welcome to keep the copies. I have others, I feel it will help you to know who we are. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Barbara & Jack Fulton

My husband Jack Harvey Patton is the son of Lyle & Mary Turner Patton of Blackwell, Oklahoma (Mary died April 1950). Lyle still lives in Blackwell and has remarried. Jack's Grandmother was Mary Ann Hickey Turner, who was a sister of your Stepfather, Charles Hickey.

We are searching for the daughter of Edward Hickey, Charles and Mary Ann's brother. The daughter's first name is Ruth, she married a Baptist minister and perhaps was the person who had Uncle Ed's body transferred from California where he died to Dallas, Texas. (The funeral home in Dallas has lost the records of the transfer.) We are trying to find out whether daughter's married name is and where she lives if still living. Do you remember the name of Ed's mother? That would be Uncle Ed's wife?

Dorothy Cook in Blackwell gave me your name and said you might be able to help us that is why I called.

Uncle Ed's son by his first marriage came to Blackwell by plane from Oregon, stayed in a hotel, ran an advertisement in the newspaper to have anyone related to the Hickey family to call him. He is especially searching a picture of his father Ed.

If you find you can aid any information to the above I have mentioned, dates, places, etc. Please do so and return to me.

I have enclosed a set for you to keep if you wish - as I do have therefore any your stepfather. You are welcome to keep the copies. I have others. I feel it will help you in some way or are. Thankyou for your help.

Margaret Burger Pacheco
5560 S. Elati Street - Apt. 108
Littleton, CO 80120
Unlisted: 303-797-7357

Called regarding a letter I had sent to her in 1985 when we were looking for Ed Hickey's family. I had received her name from Denver Harrelson, Fredonia. She apologized for not replying sooner, but had found the letter and wanted to talk about it. She could remember Ivan Turner and some of the other Turner children. She worked in a nursing home for several years in the Colorado area, retired several years ago and volunteered that she is 72.

Born in Blackwell to Cleo Harrelson and ? Burger. Margaret's mother died when she was young and her Grandmother, Mae Hickey raised her and her sister, NAME? Mae is buried in the Blackwell cemetery. Mae was married to Charles Hickey.

She talked for about 45 minutes, really trying to figure out the information I had sent her. An enjoyable visit with her trying to give her information. At this time, do not feel any of her children are interested but she gave enough information that they could be contacted.

She spoke of Denver Harrelson, Fredonia. Married to Bessie, had three sons, Gary (oldest), Darrel (believe he ran a restaurant in Fredonia), Neal (Fredonia Police Dept.) and a daughter, no name given. She mentioned that Denver worked for the Globe Oil Refinery in Blackwell years ago.

Jack told her that he had found Thomas Patrick Hickey in the census while in Independence, MO eariler this spring. I told her when we updated the literature, I would send her a copies.

Margaret has been married several times first to Goodman of Blackwell, in conversation said that her son, Melvin Goodman lived in Anchorage, Alaska. (Info from Internet)

Called regarding a letter I had sent to her in 1985 when we were looking for Ed Hickey's family. I had received her name from Denver Harrelson, Fredonia. She apologized for not replying sooner, but had found the letter and wanted to talk about it. She could remember Ivan Turner and some of the other Turner children. She worked in a nursing home for several years in the Colorado area, retired several years ago and volunteered that she is 72.

Born in Blackwell to Cleo Harrelson and ? Burger. Margaret's mother died when she was young and her Grandmother, Mae Hickey, raised her and her sister, NAME? Mae is buried in the Blackwell cemetery. Mae was married to Charles Hickey.

She talked for about 45 minutes, really trying to figure out the information I had sent her. An enjoyable visit with her trying to give her information. At this time, do not feel any of her children are interested but she gave enough information that they could be contacted.

She spoke of Denver Harrelson, Fredonia. Married to Bessie, had three sons, Gary (oldest), Darrel (believe he ran a restaurant in Fredonia), Neal (Fredonia Police Dept.) and a daughter, no name given. She mentioned that Denver worked for the Globe Oil Refinery in Blackwell years ago.

Jack told her that he had found Thomas Patrick Hickey in the census while in Independence, MO earlier this spring. I told her when we updated the literature, I would send her a copies.

Margaret has been married several times first to Goodman of Blackwell, in conversation said that her son, Melvin Goodman lived in Anchorage, Alaska. (Info from Internet)

- Genelines Now Compatible with Family Tree Maker 5 & 6 and GEDCOM

One new product expected to be unveiled at the National Genealogical Conference next week is Genelines 1.2. In fact, two versions are being introduced with slightly different details. If you are not familiar with Genelines, you might first want to read my reviews of the earlier versions of the programs. The review of version 1.0 is available at: http://www.ancestry.com/columns/eastman/eastOct26-98.htm and a shorter description of the differences in version 1.1 is at: http://www.ancestry.com/columns/eastman/eastmar09-99.htm

Earlier versions of Genelines could only read data from Personal Ancestral File version 3.0 or from Family Tree Maker version 4 or 5. The new Genelines version 1.2 is compatible with Family Tree Maker versions 4, 5 and 6 and adds support for importing GEDCOM files.

The two versions of Genelines 1.2 are as follows:

Genelines version 1.2TLC is a downloadable version, available at the Family Tree Maker web site for a price of $19.99 US funds. The downloadable version does not import PAF files, nor does it include a user's manual. The manual is available separately for an additional $10.00. Version 1.2TLC makes a menu item built into Family Tree Maker, making it available directly from that program. Genelines can also be accessed separately.

Genelines version 1.2P is sold in the traditional manner with diskettes in a box and a full user's manual. It fully supports PAF 3.0 files as well as Family Tree Maker and GEDCOM files. It will not have a menu item built into Family Tree Maker.

If all of that sounds confounding (it certainly confuse me), you might find it easier to read this comparison chart:

File Format	Genelines Versions 1.0	1.1	1.2P	TLC version
FTM 4	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
FTM 5 & 6	No	Yes	Yes	Yes
PAF 3.0	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
GEDCOM	No	No	Yes	Yes

Users of earlier versions of Genelines can obtain upgrades to the latest version for $19.95

Dear Margaret:

We are researching the Hickey Family looking for a cousin. Denver Harrelson gave us your address in hopes you could help -

We are looking for a picture of Uncle Ed Hickey, brother of Charles Hickey, who married Mae Harrelson, Denver's Mother. Denver said he did not have any pictures but perhaps you might know someone in the family who did.

We are also trying to find Ruth Hickey _____?? , Uncle Ed's daughter who lived in Goliad, Texas in 1951. Uncle Ed's body was transferred from California to Goliad for burial - however, the Funeral Home has lost the records.

Recently, in April Ed's son by his first marriage, Eugene Hickey flew from Oregon to Blackwell, Oklahoma to see if any of his relatives were left. Eugene and wife stayed in a motel and ran an advertisement to find any relatives with the Hickey name. Eugene is 80 years old and his dream is to have a picture of his father, Ed. He was taken by his Mother to the Northwest at the age of 4.

If you can be of any help, we would be most grateful. I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope in hopes of hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Fulton

Notes

Tom was listed on his death certificate as a widower, living at 217 Pennsylvania Street, Vallejo, California. He had lived there 16 years and was listed as retired. He must have died alone because the death certificate states that there was an investigation into his death by the Vallejo County Coroner.

Have a copy of his original application for Social Security. He was working for the Idaho Power Company of Boise, Idaho in May 4 1937 when he made application. Gave his mother as Mary Mullis and father as Pat Hickey. Tom was 47 years of age on the application and he lived at 344 Harrison, Twin Falls, Idaho.
His birthdate is listed as 28 May 1889, born in Indianapolis, Indiana, which does NOT correspond with our information. He has signed his name as Thomas J. Hickey, not Thomas I. as we were given.

On the Social Security Original Application, Thomas name is listed as Thomas Ivan Hickey. It was filed in Twin Falls, Idaho in 4 May 1937. He was working for the Idaho Power Company. Was 47 his last birthday, states born 28 May 1889, which is a CONFLICT with the Hickey information.

16th Road Death In 1958 Already On State Record

By UNITED PRESS

The Oklahoma traffic death toll continues to set the pace of last year's grisly record, as the state recorded its 16th death for 1958 Monday morning.

The latest victim was 59-year-old Henry Rigney of Toledo, Ohio. Rigney died in a Sayre hospital of complications growing out of injuries he received Jan. 11 when the car driven by his wife and another vehicle collided near Sayre on U. S. Highway 66.

His wife, 48-year-old Eleanor B. Rigney, is in Sayre hospital suffering from two broken arms, but not otherwise seriously injured.

The driver of the other car was identified by the highway patrol as 50-year-old Sherman L. Wright, of Buhl, Idaho. He is also Bessie Hickey Cook was a sister to Jack's grandmother, Mary Ann Hickey Turner.

She married Gene Cook
They are buried south of Lyle and Ruby in the Blackwell Cemetery.

Info sent to Doris Spencer, 1-21-02:
Some years ago, Jack's Dad, Lyle told us to call Dorothy Cook, 610 W. College, Blackwell that she might be able to help us know more about the Bessie and Gene. Dorothy said she had had the Hickey Bible and had given it to Alice and Jim London. Jim is the son of Syke Cook London, believe Syke was Gene's brother's wife. Dorothy said that we might also ask Alice for Jim Gaylor address, that he had "copied things out of the Bible".

Called Jim and Alice. Talked to Jim first and he was not very responsive to questions, he gave the phone to Alice who said that she had the Hickey Bible, it HAD HAD information in it, but SOMEONE had erased the information and put her family in it!!!! Don't know whether that sounds like something that could have happened or not! When asked for Jim Gaylor's address, Alice said she did not know it. And since we did not know where Jim Gaylor lived ---the research died there.

Now sorry to say we do not remember how Dorothy was related, if you do, please share with us. Do you know who Jim Gaylor is/was? Our notes are old--this was all done when Lyle was living and he passed in 1995. Hopefully you or someone in your family might be able to make better sense from this…we can only hope! From doing genealogy over a period of years, we have found that usually the youngest child has had the most information about a family. Guess we just did not move early or swiftly enough on this one!

We had gotten Gene's death obituary from the Blackwell Journal one time we were in OKC, but have not found Bessie's. When looking back over the dates, can see that both Gene and Bessie have the same dates for their birth, which is doubtful. Will have to check that out the next time we go to the Blackwell Cemetery. Gene and Bessie are buried just to the south of Lyle and Ruby, also Angelina "Angie" Hickey is buried there, but has no stone.

Lloyd Martin Dies Sunday Morning At Home Of Daughter

Lloyd Martin, 77, veteran of the G. A. R. and father of Mrs. Carl F. Kennedy, died Sunday morning at 8:35 o'clock at the Kennedy home, 431 West Florence avenue following an illness of several weeks. Although death was not unexpected, the passing of this beloved husband and father has enveloped the home in sorrow and spread grief throughout the city, for Mr. Martin was held in highest esteem by a wide circle of friends. He is survived by his widow and two children, Mrs. Carl F. Kennedy, Blackwell, and Tom W. Martin, Lamont.

Mr. Martin was stricken by his last illness a few weeks ago and seemed to realize that his passing was near. Among other things he made request of members of Russell Litchfield post, American Legion, that his body be laid to rest with military honors. In keeping with this request, the legion and members of the G. A. R. will conduct a military service at the grave in Odd Fellows cemetery on Monday afternoon following the funeral service by Rev. J. T. Ogle at the Christian church at 5 o'clock.

For the funeral six pall bearers were selected from the legion membership along with two color guards and a fixing squad of eight men. The squad will fire a salute of three volleys over the grave of the departed veteran and a bugler will sound "taps."

Probate

Probate records include wills, bonds, petitions, accounts, inventories, administrations, orders, decrees, and distributions. For further information, see United States Probate Records.

In Missouri, probate records have usually been recorded by the clerks of the probate courts, but in some counties the common pleas or circuit courts handled this function. They are frequently indexed.

Taxation

Taxes were levied on free white males over 21 and slaves aged 21 to 60. These persons are referred to as "polls." Tax listings, or digests, of a county generally list the taxable landowners and other polls and the amount of tax. The records for each county are divided by militia district. For more information see the wiki page Missouri Taxation.

Vital Records

Vital Records consist of births, adoptions, marriages, divorces, and deaths. For additional guidance on researching and using vital records, see United States Vital Records or How to order Missouri Vital Records.

St. Louis and Kansas City recorded births and deaths starting as early as 1850 for deaths and 1870 for births. The Missouri Department of Health began keeping birth and death records in 1909. County records vary by year and the county. A copy or an extract of most original records can be purchased from the Missouri Vital Records State Department of Health, the County Clerk's office or order electronically online.
